Ref.: 201_36668 Date: 03 - 07 Aug 2026 Location: Dubai - Marriott Hotel Al Jaddaf, Dubai
Fees: 4500 Euro

Course Overview:

This 5-day corporate training course empowers professionals to develop, implement, and evaluate strategic community engagement and stakeholder relations programs. Participants will gain deep insight into community needs assessment, stakeholder mapping, corporate reputation management, and conflict resolution strategies. The course emphasizes real-world application using proven practices in stakeholder engagement, CSR integration, and sustainable community development. Leveraging case studies and expert-guided exercises, participants will learn how to align business goals with societal expectations. The course focuses on equipping leaders with actionable frameworks for navigating complex stakeholder environments, enhancing community trust, and building long-term, resilient corporate-community relationships.

Target Audience:

- Community Relations Managers
- CSR & ESG Officers
- Public Affairs Specialists
- Stakeholder Engagement Consultants
- Corporate Communications Managers
- Project Managers working in public sectors

Targeted Organizational Departments:

Course Offerings:

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:

- Identify, analyze, and prioritize stakeholders effectively
- Assess community needs and align them with corporate values
- Develop long-term trust-building strategies with communities
- Resolve stakeholder conflicts and manage community crises
- Integrate CSR practices with measurable community impact
- Communicate effectively with diverse stakeholder groups

Training Methodology:

This course uses a mix of interactive methodologies designed to simulate real-world challenges and solutions. Participants will engage in community mapping, conflict simulations, role-playing exercises, and group workshops. Expert-led discussions will explore case studies from various sectors to reinforce conceptual learning. Strategic planning labs will allow participants to design engagement frameworks tailored to their industries. Scenario-based learning and peer feedback sessions will support skill refinement, while knowledge sharing enhances collaboration. These experiential tools ensure that participants gain practical capabilities, not just theoretical knowledge.

FAQ:

What specific qualifications or prerequisites are needed for participants before enrolling in the course?

No specific prerequisites are needed. However, professionals in public affairs, CSR, or stakeholder-related roles will benefit most.

How long is each day's session, and is there a total number of hours required for the entire course?

Each session runs 4-5 hours with breaks. Total instruction time is 20-25 hours over five days.

How can this course help in managing community-related crises?

It equips participants with strategic planning tools and real-world crisis simulations to build organizational resilience and community trust during challenging events.

How This Course is Different from Other Community Engagement Courses:

This course delivers a unique blend of strategy, ethics, and communication specifically tailored to professionals who manage complex stakeholder networks. It emphasizes sustainable community development, stakeholder trust-building, and CSR integration in measurable, practical ways. Rather than offering generic templates, the course immerses participants in applied exercises using real-world challenges. From stakeholder mapping to handling public backlash and building inclusive partnerships, this program prepares participants to lead with clarity and social accountability.
