Ref.: 57_37498 Date: 17 - 21 Aug 2025 Location: Phuket Fees: 6000 Euro

Course Overview:

"ADKAR Change Management: Master Prosci Framework Training Course" is a specialized 5-day corporate program designed to equip change agents, leaders, and project professionals with the practical knowledge and tools to implement successful organizational change. Leveraging the globally recognized Prosci ADKAR Model—Awareness, Desire, Knowledge, Ability, and Reinforcement—this course bridges the gap between theory and real-world application. Participants will explore how to overcome resistance, align change with business goals, and embed change into corporate culture using structured methodologies.

Target Audience:

- Change management professionals
- HR and L&D specialists
- Project managers
- Executives and department heads
- Internal consultants and transformation officers
- Change sponsors and team leaders

Targeted Organizational Departments:

- Human Resources HR
- Learning & Development L&D
- Project Management Office PMO
- Strategy and Transformation
- IT and Digital Transformation
- Organizational Development

Targeted Industries:

- Healthcare and pharmaceuticals
- Oil & gas and energy
- Financial services and banking
- Telecommunications and IT
- Government and public administration
- Manufacturing and logistics

Course Offerings:

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:

- Apply the ADKAR model in both individual and organizational change
- Diagnose and manage resistance using ADKAR strategies
- Build strategic change plans aligned with business goals
- Facilitate stakeholder engagement and sponsorship
- Embed sustainable change through reinforcement mechanisms
- Translate theory into practice via change agent training programs

Training Methodology:

This interactive course uses a blend of instructor-led sessions, real-world case studies, peer collaboration, simulations, and structured ADKAR exercises. Participants will engage in group discussions, resistance scenario analysis, and executive change sponsor training simulations. Emphasis will be placed on hands-on learning through coaching activities, role plays, and actionable toolkits. ADKAR assessments and knowledge-to-ability practice are embedded to simulate organizational change scenarios.

Course Toolbox:

- ADKAR assessment worksheets
- Change readiness checklists
- Role-based communication templates
- Reinforcement planning guides
- Change impact analysis framework
- Sample resistance management plans

FAQ:

What specific qualifications or prerequisites are needed for participants before enrolling in the course?

This course requires no formal prerequisites. It is suitable for professionals engaged in or leading organizational change.

How long is each day's session, and is there a total number of hours required for the entire course?

Each day's session is generally structured to last around 4-5 hours, with breaks and interactive activities included. The total course duration spans five days, approximately 20-25 hours of instruction.

How is the ADKAR Model different from other change management frameworks?

Unlike generic models, the ADKAR model uniquely focuses on the individual as the unit of change. Its sequential structure Awareness, Desire, Knowledge, Ability, Reinforcement ensures clear measurement and action across each phase of change. It offers practical diagnostics to assess and manage the people side of change using validated insights from Prosci's global research.

How This Course is Different from Other ADKAR Change Management Courses:

This course delivers a distinctive blend of ADKAR model mastery and real-world change leadership training. It stands out by incorporating both strategic frameworks and tactical applications—not just academic theory. Participants gain not only a roadmap for implementing the Prosci framework but also role-based skill-building in resistance management, coaching, and leadership alignment.
