How This Course is Different from Other Leading Digital Execution Courses:

Leading Digital Execution Training course: "Strategy, Agility & Impact" is uniquely designed to serve as both a practical corporate training and a preparatory course for professionals considering or pursuing the IMD certificate in digital transformation. While most programs focus either on strategy or agile delivery, this course integrates both with leadership development using IMD's proprietary Seven Tensions model and Digital Transformation Orchestra. It stands out for blending agile strategy implementation course content with digital transformation orchestration techniques, enabling leaders to master both strategic alignment and cultural readiness.
