Board Secretariat Practices & Corporate Governance Training

Ref.: 103600430_62479 Date: 28 Sep - 02 Oct 2026 Location: Amsterdam Fees: 5700 Euro

Course Overview:

This Board Secretariat Training program provides a comprehensive framework for board secretaries, governance officers, and compliance professionals to excel in their evolving roles. Rooted in Corporate Governance Practices and global standards, the course blends theory with practice to strengthen the professional competencies needed to manage board processes effectively. Participants will explore responsibilities such as preparing board meetings, managing documentation, supporting directors, and ensuring alignment with Corporate Compliance and Governance regulations.

The training integrates insights from international best practices, including OECD guidelines and case studies from emerging and mature markets, while drawing on academic research e.g., disclosure quality, secretary background factors. By focusing on Effective Board Management, risk oversight, board evaluations, and strategic governance, the program equips attendees to serve as trusted advisors to boards. Additionally, participants will sharpen their Board Meeting Management Training skills, enhance advisory capacities, and gain tools for navigating challenges such as conflicts of interest, disclosure obligations, and sustainability integration.

Ultimately, this course develops the ability to balance compliance with value creation, empowering board secretaries to ensure transparency, accountability, and effective decision-making. Graduates will return with actionable knowledge and a set of applied frameworks to lead governance transformation and implement Secretariat and Governance Best Practices confidently.

FAQ:

What specific qualifications or prerequisites are needed for participants before enrolling in the course?

No strict prerequisites are required. However, prior exposure to board operations, governance, or corporate compliance will enhance learning.

How long is each day's session, and is there a total number of hours required for the entire course?

Each session runs 4-5 hours with breaks and interactive activities. The full course spans five days, totaling approximately 25 hours of instruction.

How can board secretaries contribute to corporate strategy while maintaining compliance obligations?

Board secretaries play a dual role: ensuring compliance through robust documentation and disclosure, while enabling strategic alignment by advising directors on governance implications of major decisions.

How This Course is Different from Other Board Secretariat Courses:

Unlike generic governance programs, this Board Secretariat Training is uniquely designed to blend Secretariat and Governance Best Practices with practical skills in meeting management, compliance, and strategy. It leverages Corporate Governance Practices frameworks, supported by empirical research on board secretary effectiveness e.g., how tenure, education, and equity ownership influence disclosure quality
