FAQ

What specific qualifications or prerequisites are needed for participants before enrolling in the course?

There are no mandatory prerequisites for this course, but a background in compliance, risk management, auditing, or governance is beneficial.

How long is each day's session, and is there a total number of hours required for the entire course?

Each session lasts approximately four to five hours per day, with a total course duration of 20 to 25 hours over five days.

What is the difference between ISO 37301 and ISO 19600?

ISO 37301 is a certifiable standard for compliance management systems, whereas ISO 19600 provides only guidelines and does not require certification. ISO 37301 replaces ISO 19600 and includes mandatory requirements for compliance management systems.

How This Course is Different from Other ISO 37301 Courses

This course offers:

- A comprehensive approach covering ISO 37301 implementation, auditing, and certification
- A hands-on learning experience using mock audits, case studies, and real-world compliance examples
- Practical guidance from industry experts with extensive experience in compliance and auditing
- Interactive learning methods such as group discussions, workshops, and role-playing activities
- A career-focused approach helping professionals prepare for ISO 37301 lead auditor, lead implementer, or compliance management certification

This training ensures that participants not only understand ISO 37301 requirements but can also apply them effectively in their organizations to enhance compliance frameworks, reduce legal risks, and achieve global compliance certification.
