Ref.: 103600565_74012 Date: 18 - 22 Oct 2026 Location: Jakarta Fees: 5700 Euro

Course Overview:

The Advanced Trends in Procurement, Tenders & Contract Management Mastery Training Course is a comprehensive and practical program designed to strengthen professional capabilities in procurement planning, tender administration, supplier management, and contract governance within modern organizations. As procurement functions continue evolving through digital transformation, regulatory changes, strategic sourcing models, and risk-based decision-making, organizations require professionals who can manage procurement operations with efficiency, transparency, compliance, and commercial awareness.

This training course provides participants with advanced knowledge of procurement lifecycle management, tender preparation and evaluation, supplier relationship management, contract formation, financial control, procurement risk mitigation, and performance measurement techniques. Participants will explore how procurement contributes directly to operational excellence, cost optimization, legal protection, sustainability goals, and organizational competitiveness.

The course combines strategic concepts with practical application through procurement simulations, supplier evaluation exercises, bid analysis workshops, negotiation activities, contract review sessions, and procurement KPI assessments. Participants will gain actionable techniques to improve procurement governance, strengthen supplier collaboration, reduce contractual disputes, and optimize procurement performance through modern tools and methodologies.

By the end of the program, participants will be equipped to manage procurement and contracting activities confidently while aligning procurement strategies with organizational objectives, regulatory requirements, and international best practices.
