International Public Relations, Ceremonies, Protocols and Events Training Course

Ref: 103600370_101494 Date: 4 – 8 January 2027 Location: London Fees: 6500 Euro

Course Overview:

This advanced training course is designed for professionals looking to enhance their skills in international communication, diplomatic event planning, and protocol management. Unlike other programs, it focuses on the complexities of global ceremonial practices and media management.

Participants will learn from resources such as The Practice of Public Relations by Seitel, Protocol International, and guidelines for sustainable event management. The course covers cross-cultural public diplomacy, media relations, crisis communication, ceremonial codes, and sustainable practices.

Key skills include diplomatic note writing Note Verbale, professional protocol training, and communication strategies for state ceremonies. Through case studies and simulations, participants will be equipped for global engagement in diplomatic, governmental, and multinational environments.

What is the difference between diplomatic protocol and ceremonial etiquette in international settings?

While both represent structured forms of conduct, diplomatic protocol pertains to the rules and procedures that guide international relations and communications, such as precedence, flag placement, and Note Verbale. In contrast, ceremonial etiquette emphasizes the symbolic and ritualistic aspects of events, including greetings, gift exchanges, and state dinners, which are deeply shaped by cultural norms.

How This Course is Different from Other International PR Courses:

The course offers a globally integrated curriculum for executive-level professionals. Beyond basic protocol and PR, it focuses on cross-cultural intelligence, sustainability, and leadership in high-stakes situations. This program prepares participants to manage diplomatic breaches, coordinate international media under pressure, and design protocols for diverse, security-conscious audiences. Drawing on strategic materials from key resources, it serves as a platform for leaders shaping the global image and ceremony.
