Internal Audit Team Leadership Training Course

Ref: 376_130850 Date: 11 – 15 January 2027 Location: Seoul Fees: 10000 Euro

Overview

Internal Audit Team Leadership Training Course is a five-day course for team leaders, engagement supervisors, new audit managers, and senior auditors who leave with an Internal Audit Team Leadership Toolkit. The course turns an approved audit plan into staffed, supervised engagements through delegation, fieldwork direction, workpaper review, coaching, stakeholder conversations, quality control, issue escalation, progress reporting, and team learning. Agile Leaders Training Center delivers this course on internal audit team leadership.

Who Should Attend

- Engagement leadership functions responsible for staffing and directing audit work
- Supervisory functions responsible for fieldwork quality and workpaper review
- New audit management functions responsible for deadlines, escalation, and communication
- Senior audit functions preparing to coach colleagues and lead assignments
- Assurance functions responsible for stakeholder coordination and engagement delivery

The course assumes participants already perform or review internal audit engagements and leaves out introductory audit methods and chief audit executive strategy.

FAQs

Who suits internal audit team leadership training, and what does it assume?

Internal audit team leadership training suits supervisors, new managers, and senior auditors who already perform or review engagements and are preparing to direct others.

How does internal audit team leadership differ from audit executive leadership training?

Internal audit team leadership focuses on engagement staffing, supervision, coaching, quality, and delivery, while executive leadership training addresses function strategy, board relationships, budgets, and enterprise positioning.

What does an internal audit team leader supervise?

An internal audit team leader supervises work allocation, fieldwork progress, evidence collection, workpaper quality, finding support, deadlines, communication, escalation, and staff development.

How should internal audit workpapers be reviewed?

Internal audit workpapers should be reviewed against objectives, procedures, evidence sufficiency, traceability, conclusions, clarity, required corrections, and documented supervisory sign-off.

How can an internal audit team leader manage difficult stakeholder conversations?

An internal audit team leader can prepare facts, objectives, interests, likely concerns, boundaries, options, escalation criteria, and a clear record of decisions and follow-up.

Conclusion

Participants leave with an Internal Audit Team Leadership Toolkit covering staffing, delegation, supervision, workpaper review, coaching, stakeholder communication, quality, escalation, reporting, and team learning. The toolkit changes informal coordination into a visible leadership system. It provides a working basis for dependable delivery, stronger review discipline, and purposeful staff development.
