Hospitality Marketing and Sales Training Course

Ref: 1586_216937 Date: 4 – 8 July 2027 Location: Zanzibar Fees: 5500 Euro

Overview

Hospitality Marketing and Sales Training Course is a one-week intermediate course for hospitality managers, sales teams, marketing coordinators, and commercial staff who leave with a Hospitality Marketing and Sales Action Plan. Participants connect guest segmentation and value propositions with channels, campaigns, accounts, leads, proposals, conversion measures, and operational capacity. The course provides tools for coordinated commercial execution across hotels, resorts, venues, and visitor services rather than isolated communication or negotiation techniques. Agile Leaders Training Center delivers hospitality marketing and sales capability development.

Who Should Attend

- Managers responsible for hospitality commercial priorities and results
- Teams responsible for hotel and resort sales pipelines
- Coordinators responsible for campaigns, channels, and partnerships
- Analysts responsible for revenue, conversion, and performance reporting
- Department heads responsible for aligning demand with operations

The course assumes participants support hospitality sales or marketing decisions and leaves advanced pricing optimization and specialist media production outside its scope.

Departments and Industries

The course supports commercial functions across hospitality and related visitor-service sectors.

- Hotels, resorts, serviced residences, and conference venues
- Sales, marketing, revenue, reservations, and guest relations

FAQs

Who suits Hospitality Marketing and Sales Training?

Hospitality managers, hotel sales teams, marketing coordinators, revenue staff, and department heads who already support commercial decisions suit the course; advanced pricing science or specialist creative production is not assumed.

How does hospitality marketing and sales training differ from negotiation training?

Hospitality marketing and sales training integrates segments, channels, campaigns, accounts, pipelines, proposals, and measurement, while negotiation training concentrates on bargaining and agreement techniques.

How does hospitality marketing and sales improve commercial coordination?

Shared segments, campaign briefs, pipeline stages, performance measures, and responsibility maps give marketing, sales, revenue, and operations a consistent basis for decisions.

Which measures support hospitality marketing and sales decisions?

Teams use lead quality, pipeline movement, proposal outcomes, campaign response, conversion, account value, and operational fit to compare activity and prioritize follow-up.

What is a Hospitality Marketing and Sales Action Plan?

A Hospitality Marketing and Sales Action Plan records priority segments, value propositions, channels, campaigns, accounts, pipeline actions, responsibilities, measures, and review points.

Conclusion

Participants take back a Hospitality Marketing and Sales Action Plan that connects demand choices with daily commercial activity. The work product improves coordination among marketing, sales, revenue, and operating teams. It also creates a repeatable basis for prioritizing segments, managing pipelines, testing campaigns, and reviewing conversion results.
