Ref: 1607_218642 Date: 30 November – 4 December 2026 Location: Tokyo Fees: 10000 Euro

Overview

Sports Sponsorship Strategy and Activation Training Course is a one-week professional course for sports rights holders, clubs, federations, event organizers, commercial managers, partnership teams, brand managers, and sponsorship activation coordinators. Participants build a Sports Sponsorship Strategy and Activation Pack connecting rights inventory, audience evidence, propositions, valuation, prospecting, negotiation, rights delivery, activation, measurement, governance, brand safety, and renewal. Agile Leaders Training Center develops sports sponsorship strategy and activation capability.

Who Should Attend

- Commercial and sponsorship teams at clubs, federations, leagues, and events
- Rights-holder marketing and partnership managers
- Brand sponsorship and activation personnel
- Sports event organizers and venue commercial teams
- Finance, legal, research, media, and delivery functions supporting partnerships

The course assumes participants understand their sports property, audience, or brand objectives. It excludes legal advice, formal asset appraisal, media buying, and claims of guaranteed sponsorship sales.

Departments and Industries

The course supports sponsorship strategy across sport organizations, events, venues, agencies, brands, and public or nonprofit sports programmes.

- Sports clubs, leagues, federations, and governing bodies
- Tournaments, events, venues, and organizing committees
- Brands, agencies, media owners, and hospitality partners
- Public sports bodies and community sport programmes
- Commercial, marketing, finance, legal, research, and delivery teams

Learning Objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:

- Build a rights and sponsorship asset inventory
- Use audience and property evidence in sponsorship propositions
- Apply valuation logic, category rules, and package structures
- Design prospecting, negotiation, and contracting controls
- Plan activation, rights delivery, and brand-safety arrangements

FAQs

Who suits sports sponsorship strategy and activation training?

It suits rights-holder commercial teams, clubs, federations, event organizers, partnership managers, brand sponsorship personnel, and coordinators responsible for selling, buying, activating, or measuring sports partnerships.

What is included in a sports sponsorship rights inventory?

An inventory records available marks, naming rights, event and venue exposure, content, media, digital access, hospitality, athlete or ambassador opportunities, community programmes, data permissions, category restrictions, and delivery capacity.

How is a sponsorship proposition different from a generic sales proposal?

A sponsorship proposition connects a qualified sponsor's objectives and audience with defined rights, activation opportunities, delivery evidence, restrictions, value logic, and measurable partnership outcomes.

How should sponsorship activation be governed?

Activation needs approved objectives, rights boundaries, responsibilities, schedules, budgets, content and brand controls, audience safeguards, issue escalation, delivery evidence, and performance reporting.

How is sports sponsorship performance evaluated?

Teams use agreed indicators for rights delivery, audience reach and engagement, content performance, hospitality, participation, brand outcomes, commercial contribution, partner satisfaction, issues, and corrective actions.

Conclusion

Participants take back a Sports Sponsorship Strategy and Activation Pack. The work product connects rights, evidence, propositions, valuation, prospects, negotiation, activation, delivery, measurement, governance, brand safety, and renewal. It supports traceable commercial decisions and accountable partnership performance.
